Bright investment climate

Rich in natural resources and human capital, Nigeria is driving forward at pace as the ambitious republic invests massive oil and gas revenues in new infrastructure and introduces reforms that are facilitating trade and attracting fresh investment, particularly from leading international partners like Japan.

Nigeria is a huge producer of energy and Japan a major consumer. This creates a major opportunity. Japan has the technology Nigeria needs.

Nigeria produces vast reserves of oil and gas, valued at over 60 billion dollars. The Federal Government is working with Japanese financing and investment to expand production and develop the oil and gas sectors.

Pipeline expert Oilserve Limited keeps oil and gas supplies flowing

Oilserve Limited offers its proud portfolio of local and international clients excellence in oil and gas pipeline construction, repair and maintenance. The company is fully accredited to international quality standards and has the experience and capability to work on major infrastructure projects.

Globally backed President Goodluck Ebele Jonathan, President of Nigeria

Today’s government is committed to developing and implementing a comprehensive range of policies and measures that will encourage and attract foreign investment and create new industrial and commercial opportunities in the country.

Aerospace and technology - Southern Sun Ikoyi offers a high end technology experience

One of the largest cities in Africa, Lagos, is home to some of the most luxurious hotels, including the Southern Sun Ikoyi. The hotel offers business and leisure travelers the ideal base in the bustling metropolis of Lagos.

Aerolink a reliable, convenient and cost-effective choice for flying to Lagos

Aerolink, a private business helicopter company, is committed to providing safe, reputable, convenient and cost-effective transport between key business areas in Lagos.

Lagos - Nigeria’s capital city

Lagos is the largest city in Nigeria, and one of the largest cities in Africa. It is the economic capital of the country and a major hub for business and commerce.

Nigeria and the technology it needs

Japan is a major producer of energy, and Nigeria requires the technology to process and distribute this energy. The two countries have a long history of cooperation in the oil and gas sector, and there is a strong desire to expand these relationships to other sectors as well.

A look at Nigeria’s national parks

Nigeria is home to a number of national parks, including the Yankari Game Reserve in the northeast and the Cross River National Park in the southeast. These parks are home to a diverse range of wildlife and offer a range of activities for visitors, from hiking and camping to game viewing.

Some of Nigeria’s most famous dishes

Nigerian cuisine is known for its bold flavors and use of spices. Some of the most popular dishes include jollof rice, obe ata (stew of meat and vegetables), and fufu (a starchy, dough-like staple food).

A look at Nigeria’s major cities

Nigeria has several major cities, including Lagos, Ibadan, and Kano. Each city has its own unique character and offers a range of cultural experiences.